mout the united. Hing Lee, Ypsilanti's Chinese laundry- I man, isn't worrying over the Chino- t I Japanese war. He says, Let'em fight, c China got plenty men. Neither is he h deeply interested in Chinese success. c e He thinks her defeat would overthrow A d the Tartar dynasty and restore the na- f tive Chinese dynasty to the control of the Flowry Kingdom, and that the na- r y tives would welcome any foreign influ- 1 n ence rather than the Tartar rule.—-Ypsi-1: t lanti Commercial. e As the meadow mole has become such b